Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 9/10/04 was considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 4, 5, 6, 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "the fluid energy pulverizer" of claim 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Examiner assumes applicant meant to depend claim 4 from claim 3, which does have this limitation.

Claim 5 recites the limitation "the fluid energy pulverizer" of claim 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Examiner assumes applicant meant to depend claim 5 from claim 3, which does have this limitation.

Claim 10 recites the limitation "the hydrated oxide of aluminum" of claim 8. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Examiner assumes applicant meant to depend claim 10 from claim 9, which does have this limitation.

Claim 11 provides for a process for producing titanium dioxide pigment, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced. This claim will not be examined. When the claim is amended, it may be considered new matter since an examination based on the originally presented claims has been given and the claim would be withdrawn based upon original presentation.

Claim 12 is indefinite because it crosses statutory categories by claiming a resin composition dependent upon process claims. This claim will not be examined. When the claim is amended, it may be considered new matter since an examination based on the originally presented claims has been given and the claim would be withdrawn based upon original presentation.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-10 and 13 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 6-17 of US Patent 6576052

B1. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both claim a method for producing a titanium dioxide pigment comprising hydrolysable organosilane coating over titanium dioxide particles carried out at 120-300 °C and coated with an aluminum compound. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art that "[t]he normal desire of scientists or artisans to improve upon what is already generally known provides the motivation to determine where in a disclosed set of percentage ranges is the optimum combination of percentages", In re Peterson 65 USPQ 2d 1379 (CAFC 2003). The optimization would include specific aluminum compounds as well as percentages and therefore the processes would be obvious variants of one another.
